

Catherine O. Neijstrom

Senior Counsel

(781) 431-9788

cneijstrom@grcpc.com

Catherine Olender Neijstrom serves clients in the areas of estate planning and trust and estate administration. She is admitted to practice in Massachusetts.

Ms. Neijstrom obtained her Juris Doctor in 2002 from Boston University School of Law where she was a Dean's Scholar and a commencement speaker. She also holds a Bachelor's degree from Yale University.

ARTICLES AND LECTURES

- "Marital Deduction Planning" (Lecturer), MCLE 2015
- "I Do, Act II: Estate Planning for Second Marriages" (Panelist), MCLE 2015
- "Introductions to QPRTs" (Co-Presenter), Trust & Estates Consortium, July 2009
- "Using Retirement Benefits in an Estate Plan," Trust & Estates Consortium, March 2008
- Note, "Capping AIDS Benefits: Does Title III of ADA Regulate the Content of Insurance Policies?" 28 American Journal of Law & Medicine 107 (2002)

CIVIC ACTIVITIES

- Founding Member, Carousel Preschool Scholarship Committee (2017-2018)
- Board Member, Yale Glee Club Associates (2008-2014)

CATHERINE O. NEIJSTROM

Senior Counsel

Related Practices

- Estate Planning
- Estate Administration
- Trust Administration

Bar Associations

- Member of Boston and Massachusetts Bar Association's Boston Probate Forum and Boston Trusts & Estates Consortium ("TEC")

Recognition

- Massachusetts Super Lawyers: Rising Star-Estate Planning & Probate (2013, 2014)
- Board Member, Boston Trusts & Estates Consortium ("TEC") 2018